PUBLIC NOTICE

REQUIREMENT OF ACCREDITATION PERMIT FOR GOODS EXPORTED TO THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH SUDAN AT ZERO COST TO ALL CARGOS.

The South Sudan Revenue Authority as a government agency that is in charge of tax administration in the Republic of South Sudan has a sole responsible authority to make decision that create reputable environment for actors in the business sector, in which its mandates are stipulated in the Transitional Constitution of the Republic of South Sudan. Recognizing the Transitional Constitution of the Republic of South Sudan, 2011, Section (185), increased global concern for the security and facilitation of the international trade supply chain and Customs Co-operation in Council's Resolution dated June 2002 and the recommendation on Mutual Administrative Assistance (The Cyprus Declaration), adopted and dated December 1953 and July 2000 respectively by the Customs Co-operation Council, now known as the World Customs Organisation, South Sudan Communication Sector Policy, 2012, section 9.1.1 (v), Cabinet Resolution No.30/2020 33/2020 on Economic Governance Reforms and The E-Government policy document 00097, dated 16th November, 2019, the Ministry of Trade and Industry wishes to inform the public of a new regulatory requirement for all goods exported to our Country. To prevent the importation of counterfeit goods / products and ensure the quality of goods entering South Sudan, it is now mandatory for all goods to be evidenced with an "Accreditation Permit" before they can be released into the Republic of South Sudan.

This Accreditation Permit is a policy measure instituted by our government to protect consumers and enhance the overall standard of living for our citizens, who heavily rely on imported goods, which also serves as a critical tool in regulating and verifying the authenticity and quality of products entering our market.

Therefore, effective immediately all commodities which are destined or exported / shipped to the Republic of South Sudan originating from the respective countries are now required to obtain an "Accreditation Permit Certificate" at zero cost to the owner of the consignment or clearing agents before being released for export as part of the government's efforts to improve regulation and surveillance of goods entering the Republic of South Sudan. This permit can be obtained through our e-Government portal at www.trade.eservices.gov.ss.

Please accept the assurance of my highest regards and consideration.
