REQUEST FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST
(CONSULTING SERVICES - FIRMS)

The Government of the Republic of South Sudan has allocated funds for implementation of the NRA 1st Strategic Plan 2022 - 2027and intends to apply part of these funds for payments under a contract for hiring a consulting firm to support the recruitment of initial managerial, technical and administrative support staff of the NRA totaling 714 in strict observance of relevant provisions of the NRA Act, 2016; NRA Scheme of Service, 2022; NRA Staff Regulations, 2022 and best practice. This assignment is expected to commence by February 2023.

The National Revenue Authority now invites eligible consulting firms to indicate their interest in providing these services. Interested consulting firms must provide information indicating that they are qualified to perform the services (brochures, description of similar assignments, experience in similar conditions, availability of appropriate skills among staff, etc.). Firms may constitute joint-ventures to enhance their chances of qualification.

Eligibility criteria, establishment of the short-list and the selection procedure shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Public Procurement and Disposal of Assets Act, 2018 of the Republic of South Sudan. Please note that interest expressed by a consulting firm does not imply any obligation on the part of the National Revenue Authority to include such a firm in the shortlist.

The estimated duration of this assignment is two (2) months which will commence immediately after signing of contract with successful firm.

Interested consulting firms may obtain further information at the address below during office hours between 08:30AM and 05:00PM Central African Standard Time on working days.

Expressions of interest must be delivered or e-mailed to the address below before or by 30th December 2022 at 3:00pm Central African Standard Time.
